

LOCAL FIRE MANAGEMENT LEADERSHIP

April 15 - 19, 2002
Pacific Northwest Training Center
Redmond, Oregon

Lead Instructor: Al Garr

Course Coordinator: Diana VanCurler (541) 504-7347

Nominations Due: November 1, 2001

Selections Posted on Web - December 3, 2001

TARGET GROUP

- Local area line officers. For Example:
  - ❖ Bureau of Indian Affairs, Resource Managers
  - ❖ National Park Service, Acting Super., Chief Rangers and some District Rangers
  - ❖ Forest Service, District Rangers
  - ❖ Bureau of Land Management, Area Managers and Assistant District Managers
  - ❖ Fish and Wildlife Service, Refuge Manager and Primary Assistant
  - ❖ States, Local Level Land Managers

TRAINEE PREREQUISITES

- Be in the target group as described above, Agency Administrators or Acting Agency Administrators.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

- This course is designed to improve Agency Administrators ability to provide leadership in local fire and other emergency activities to better serve their employees, organizations and the public.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Gain a common understanding of local and national policy, agency administrator responsibility and accountability, and Agency Administrator authority to improve all fire management actions.
- To understand the importance of monitoring and evaluation in the management of local fire activities.